Dear diary.

Travel day 1(12/05)

Today is the day where we're gonna travel to Perugia in Italy.

Today we met in the airport with people from the other schools at 05:00 at terminal 3. When we all got there we all walked to terminal 2 together and checked in our luggage.

We finally arrived at the airport in Rome we were a bit too early when you think about when the Sulga bus that we were supposed to take so we waited 2 hours in the airport in Rome. So the Sulga bus finally came and now we have to sit in the bus for around 3 hours but it's actually okay for me since we all start to get along and talk with each other.

So we finally arrived in Perugia and now have to walk up to the hostel with our luggages, it was not as easy as I thought it would be.

So we finally arrived at the hostel where we were now in our room and deciding who should sleep where.

After we all got a chance to settle in at the hostel we decided to go and buy a bus ticket for school tomorrow after that we decided to go down to a supermarket but apparently the supermarket we went down to was closed so some went back and some other went to a Lidl to get some stuff, but it took longer than expected to get there and back so we were quite late back at the hostel after that we went out to eat dinner.

Day 13/05

Dear Diary

So today is the first day where we are going to the school, the breakfast was decent if you could say that, but one thing is for sure it's not the same as Danish breakfast. Anyway today our class started at 10:30 and finished at 13:30 where they had made us lunch. To lunch we got lasagna, some sort of meat, salad, potatoes and bread, it was actually a lot of things that we could get to eat at lunch.

There haven't really been happening so much in my opinion.

Day 14/05

Dear diary

So today is the 2 day that we're here in Perugia.

The breakfast is the same as last time not really much.

There haven't really been happening much except we went to school where we should sit down in one of the kitchens and listen/watch the chef make food and talk about it.

Day 15/05

Dear Diary

So today is the 3 day that we're here in Perugia.

Today we went school where we should learn how to make middle Italian pasta, first he started making the basic pasta dough for all groups and tell how important it is to get the right consistent. After he was done telling we all went down to help making our lunch that we would get today.

Day 16/05

Dear Diary.

Today at school we should make pasta in many different kinds. When we had free me and my friends went home but before that we went out grocery shopping for dinner, but on the way home we saw that there were some kind of car event going on through the streets where new cars were driving but the were us older cars there was being sold jewellery on the streets while the event was going on, there were actually really many people the police was there as well to secure everything.

To dinner we got chicken with curry sauce and rice.

Day 17/05

Dear Diary.

Today at school the chef showed us how to make

Cinghine Alle is a kind of pasta with clams

Cacio E Pepe kinda made like carbonara.

Carbonara, I was actually really surprised by how made it and how we get it in Denmark I honestly like homemade carbonara the most, but that's just my opinion.

Orrechiette Circe, Is a kind of pasta with the leaves from the top of the broccoli.

Weekend, 18-19/05

Dear Diary

So we finally came to the weekend, we all slept to around 9-10 some people even longer, some people woke up kinda early because they went to a shopping center

Day 20/05

Dear Diary.

So today at school we should watch our new teacher make pizza dough and torta al testo. In my opinion it's a really interesting way to be taught, even though it's kinda boring to just watch. we focused the most on the pizza dough because that was the main focus for today.

After school me and Ida went out to get ice cream and buy stuff for dinner.

Day 21/05

Dear diary.

So today we went to school and once again, and today we learned how to make "pizza alla pala" which is the chefs(Matteo) favorite kind of pizza.

After school we went out to get ice cream and buy in for dinner and made dinner back at the hostel

Day 22/05

Dear Diary.

So today we once again went to school and today at school we made our own pizza for lunch which was Torta al "Testo" which is a bread with filling but this is the second time we make it, it is not the same Torta al Testo they are different the 2 we made on this trip, it was actually not as easy as I thought it would be, just to make it round is not easy.

For Dinner we went out to get Chinese food which was quite a challenge because the workers there didn't know any English at all so we had to show on the menu what we wanted we ended up sitting at the restaurant for around like 2 hours.

Day 24/05

Dear Diary.

So today is the last day where we were going to the school and today at school we had to show Matteo how to make a classic pizza dough without him helping us, after class was done we got our Diploma and said our goodbyes to the school.

In the evening we all decided to go out and eat together, well the most of us some didn't wanna go out and they just wanted to stay at home.

Day 25/05

Dear Diary.

So today is the day where we were going back home to Denmark, I must say I kinda have missed Denmark in these last 2 weeks, but the experience of Perugia has been amazing.

There didn't really happen much on the way home.

When we got to Denmark and got our luggages we said our goodbyes and went each our ways.
