

(Day 1): Sunday 12/5-19

I woke up way too early and went to the airport, where we boarded and flew to Rome and took the bus to Perugia and walked to the hotel and unpacked. Then came the long search for Lidel that took us far and wide up and down the mountain. The day ended with pasta carbonara.

(Day 2): Monday 13/5-19

Today was the first day of school. I woke up bright and early so I could get a bus card (10 turns), we took the bus to the school but Dennis had gotten the wrong one so we were at the school an hour early. That day we learned about pasta in the different provinces of Italy, as well as getting a tour of the school and some ice cream.

(Day 3): Tuesday 14/5-19

Today we learned about dishes from North Italy, which was a lot of rice and polenta. And for lunch we ate the dishes the class, when we got back to the hotel the rest of the evening was mostly catching up on Game of Thrones and Lucifer. At around 22:00 we went out in the city to get a drink, and before we knew it the clock was 2 and we went back and passed out.

(Day 5): Wednesday 15/5-19

Today we made more pasta, mostly the same some tortellini and Lasagna platters, today I also played some cards and continued trying to catch up on Game of Thrones and Lucifer. We were also doing some more nightlife exploring with some warm up at the hotel. We were also in Gubio.

(Day 7): Friday 17/5-19

Last day with Pasta and we have hit the south with a side of shellfish. When we got back to the hotel. We went out to buy some "Soda" and then we went back to hotel and played "Cards" before we went out in the City.

(Day 9): Sunday 19/5-19

Today was a relaxing day, I woke up late and did some laundry played some games like chess, checker and 500. I ended up buying a frozen pizza and just watching movies that night.

(Day 11): Tuesday 21/5-19

Today we made traditional pizza in a stone oven with ONLY three toppings on it it was very specifically ONLY three toppings. And when we went into town that night sunshine was already so drunk she could barely stand it still ended up being a most enjoyable night.

(Day 13): Thursday 23/5-19

Today we made Torta al testo it's a breadlike pizza that has been sewed in half and filled with filling it wasn't very new or interesting but it was fine. On the way back to the hotel we stop for ice cream it was a fantastic ice cream I got lemon, strawberry and passionfruit it was delicious

(Day 14): Friday 24/5-19

Today we made focaccine con impasti conditi it is a lot like Torta al testo but more bread like. At the end of the school day we all got a diploma from the school and by extension the Erasmus+ program. When I got back to the hotel I Finished packing my things and then we went out to eat, it was fantastic I got fried Mozzarella followed by risotto with mushrooms and pork cheek, and a exortenary Lemon and orange ice cream.

(Day 15): Saturday 25/5-19

We got up early and checked out of the hotel, and when down to the bus station were we got on our bus to Rome airport. we had to wait about two hours in the airport witch I justed to get some snacks and drinks for the plane trip. a couple hours later we land in copenhagen airport, were we had to wait in an eternity to get our bags, but i finally got mine i said me farewells and rushed home to my family Who were not even home.
